Flights of Fancy: Birds in Watercolor

Art Exhibit and Sale

Open through January 15

Connecticut Wildlife Artist and Sterling resident David C. Stumpo will be presenting his exquisitely rendered bird watercolors for exhibit and sale. Also on display and for sale will be framed, signed and numbered limited edition prints. Come and enjoy the birds, ranging from songbirds to raptors, tropical and fanciful. Something for every bird lover! David is a member of the Connecticut Audubon and National Audubon Societies, as well as the Cornell Lab of Ornithology. Free to the public. A percentage from all sales will benefit the Center at Pomfret. Cost: Free Exhibit will be at the CT Audubon Center at 189 Pomfret Street in Pomfret Center. Opening reception will be held at the Center on Sunday, November from 2-4 PM. Public is invited.

Holiday Nature Store

Owl Walk

Saturday, December 26 at 4:00 p.m.

Join Andy Rzeznikiewicz as he attempts to call in various owl species. Screech, Barred, and Great-Horned Owls are the likely ones at this time of year. Maybe a Saw-whet will show up? We carpool to several locations and the majority of our owls will be seen from the road. Cost: $5 members/$10 non-members. Meet at the Center at 189 Pomfret Street in Pomfret Center.

Winter Bird Walk

Tuesday, December 29 at 1:00 p.m.

Join Andy Rzeznikiewicz as we look for shrikes, harriers, ducks, horned larks, and snow buntings. An early afternoon walk was scheduled to take advantage of the warmer temperatures and resultant more active birds. Cost: $5 members/$10 non-members. Meet at the Center at 189 Pomfret Street in Pomfret Center.
