WHAT'S IT WORTH?

Antique Appraisal Event

August 2, 2010, Pomfret, CT . . . On Sunday, October 3, 2010 the Pomfret Proprietors will sponsor the 3rd Annual "What's It Worth?" antique appraisal event at the Pomfret School Strong Field House from 9:00AM to 1:00 PM. Dig out your antiques and head to Pomfret for a verbal appraisal from Thomas Degnan of Antiques at Pompey Hollow. Cost is $10 for one item or $15 for two. Please bring items that are easily carried by hand.

With 30 years experience in the antiques and fine arts business, Degnan has been responsible for identifying well over a million dollars worth of fine art and antiques as well as directly marketing much more through auctions, retail and wholesale marketing venues. As an auctioneer and certified appraiser, Degnan's appraisals follow standards set by The Universal Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice and The American Society of Appraisers.

On-site refreshments will be available during the event. Located in Connecticut's scenic Quiet Corner, just 10 minutes from Putnam, a popular antiquing destination, a visit to Pomfret is worth the drive. Make a day trip of it and visit our historic landmarks, unique shops and exceptional restaurants. Profits from this event will benefit a Pomfret Proprietors Scholarship Fund.
